BUCKATREE HALL HOTEL TELFORD

Buckatree Hall is 3 star hotel situated at the foot of the Wrekin in Wellington, Telford, Shropshire. Set in its scenic gardens with miniature lake it is surrounded by beautiful countryside and spectacular views. The hotel was completely refurbished during 2011 to today's high standard incorporating the Lander bar, Lakeside restaurant, meeting rooms and bedrooms, transforming the hotel with a stylish yet tasteful finish. Only 2 minutes from junction 7 of the M54 motorway we are ideally placed for Telford, Shrewsbury and local amenities.

Sir John Bayley Suite

The Sir John Bayley suite can accommodate upto a maximum of 150 delegates. A versatile, air conditioned space with floods of natural daylight and its own private bar. An ideal venue for corporate events, networking, awards ceremonies, exhibitions & general meetings. The room can be divided into 4 separate break out / syndicate areas and is located on the ground floor being fully accessible. In addition the Sir John Bayley suite benefits from private access leading directly to the car park.

The Hesba Stretton Suite

Added to the hotel in 2014 the suite is a light, inviting and contemporary room ideal for board meetings, networking, small presentations or as a syndicate / breakout area. The room also benefits from air conditioning and patio doors onto a terraced area.

Accommodation

The hotel offers a wide range of accommodation from standard bedrooms, scenic view rooms with private balconies and a Penthouse suite set over 2 levels. Every bedroom has been designed and equipped with the business traveller in mind with work desks, safes large enough to fit a lap top computer, ironing stations and free Wi-Fi. All residential guests are able to take full advantage of our gym.
